

OIEC

OFICINA INTERNACIONAL DE LA EDUCACIÓN CATÓLICA
OFFICE INTERNATIONAL DE L'ENSEIGNEMENT CATHOLIQUE
CATHOLIC INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION OFFICE

1

The founders had many objectives:

2

True global representation, through membership of the greatest number of countries in which Catholic education was organized.

3

Recognition from other I.C.O. (International Catholic Organizations) and active participation in their meetings.

4

Recognition from the United Nations and their specialized services: UNESCO, ECOSOC, UNICEF, FAO, Conseil de l'Europe, etc.

5

Reinforcing the internal structure of the Office itself.

FOUNDED IN 1952

ABOUT US

OIEC is an international Catholic organization with the following aims:

- To participate in the Church's mission to promote a worldwide Catholic-inspired educational project.
- To promote research on the specific contribution of Catholic school to the field of education and on the school's adaptation to the needs, realities and aspirations of the environment in which it is integrated.
- To promote the creation, alongside schools and educational institutions, of "Educational Communities" in which all partners work together responsibly, for educational and cultural progress, as well as on developing the evangelical spirit, by bringing special attention to the deprived and welcoming, with respect to conscience, all those who put their trust in this school.
- To create and develop links of mutual assistance and active, responsible solidarity amongst members.
- To serve as a network of exchange amongst members for their own information and that of educators, by means of developing communication.
- To collaborate with the bodies of the universal Church, with the Episcopal conferences and other international Catholic education organizations.
- To ensure the representation of Catholic Education in international bodies, particularly those concerned with education.
- To defend and promote the active exercise of freedom of education in accordance with distributive justice, and to foster relations of mutual recognition and association between Catholic education and the countries in which it exists.
