

GPENreformation Conference of Hope

– From Latin America to the World –

Part I: November 05, 2021, 12.00 to 02.30pm BST

|        |   |
|--------|---|
| 12.00h | Welcome by the GPENreformation Council and the Presidencies of IECLB, IELB and IELU   |
| 12.15h | Spiritual Opening   |
| 12.25h | Introduction of the GPENreformation Network   |
| 12.35h | Impulse by Edson and Aline Kaiapó: Indigenous People and Intercultural Dialogue: What does Schools need to learn about Hope? |
| 01.15h | Break   |
| 01.25h | Exchange in Working Groups  |
| 02.00h | Merging of the Group Discussions  |
| 02.25h | Conclusion  |

Part II: November 06, 2021, 12.00 to 02.30pm BST

|        |  |
|--------|--|
| 12.00h | Welcome  |
| 12.10h | Panel Discussion with Alvorí Ahlert, Amanda Costa, Benilda Brito and Andrea De Vita: Caring for Life in its Diversity through Education |
| 01.00h | Break  |
| 01.10h | Group Work and Presentation of the Results of the "Week of Hope" and the "Talks of Hope"   |
| 01.30h | Impulse by P. Gustavo Gómes Pascua: Pedagogy of Hope  |
| 02.10h | Merging of the Conference Parts  |
| 02.20h | Spiritual Conclusion   |
| 02.25h | Farewell   |

An event by

About the speakers (in alphabetical order)

- Alvori Ahlert: Doctor in Theology from Faculdades EST and Post-Doctor in Education from the University of Vale do Rio dos Sinos – Unisinos, São Leopoldo/RS. Professor at the State University of Western Paraná – Unioeste, Paraná/Brazil.
- Benilda Brito: Black and feminist movement activist since the 1980s. Coordinator of Nzinga - Black Women's Collective of Belo Horizonte, of the Human Rights Program of ODARA - Black Women's Institute, and of the Black Women's Network of Northeast Brazil. Full member of the UN WOMAN Civil Society Advisory Group.
- Amanda Costa: Graduated in International Relations, entrepreneur at Perifa Sustentável, columnist for Agência Jovem de Notícias and mobilizer of Youth Climate Leaders (YCL) networks.
- Gustavo Gómes Pascua: Former president of the United Evangelical Lutheran Church of Argentina.
- Aline Kaiapó: Writer, researcher and law student.
- Edson Kaiapó: Environmentalist, UNESCO-awarded writer, doctor in history of education, focusing on indigenous school education, teacher of Indigenous History and Indigenous School Education at the Federal Institute of Bahia, accredited teacher in the Postgraduate Program in Teaching and Relations Ethnic-Racial at the Federal University of Southern Bahia.
- Andrea De Vita: Doctor in Philosophy, graduated in Theology from ISEDET, specializing in Arab and Islamic studies, member and research advisor at the Center for Research in Philosophy and History of Religions.