The GPENreformation Network

503,000
teachers

8.5 million
students

43,000
educational institutions

Globally connected for Educational Quality

Good education for all – with this goal, GPEN-reformation represents Protestant educational institutions worldwide towards society and politics!

A closer Look: Germany

At 1,135 Protestant schools, 25,000 teachers work every day to provide good education for their 214,000 students.

A closer Look: Democratic Republic of Congo

Around 4.5 million students and 185,000 teachers work together in 19,390 schools. In this way, the „Église du Christ au Congo“ gives a large number of children and young people access to good education – which would otherwise be denied to them.

Africa

5,473,260 students
212,636 teachers
22,944 educational institutions

North and South America

1,997,650 students
201,190 teachers
16,369 educational institutions

Europe

908,101 students
85,751 teachers
3,453 educational institutions

Oceania

43,726 students

As the network is growing steadily, the numbers mentioned here are also increasing continuously.

Global Pedagogical Network – Joining in Reformation

GPENreformation is an international network of Protestant schools, universities and educational organisations. In global conferences, teacher academies, school camps and via the learning and communication platform GPENdialogue the aim is to develop good education together and practice global solidarity. The GPENreformation Foundation supports the network activities.

Network Members

GPENreformation continues to enjoy a steadily growing number of direct member schools, colleges and organizations.
